

Mini Masters: Elements of Art Course

Missed Class Policy

Due to the nature of this course, Exploring the Elements of Art, missed classes cannot be made up at this time, and refunds will not be issued.

This is because all materials and supplies are purchased in advance for each student to ensure a smooth and engaging experience.

If your child misses a session, we encourage you to review the weekly lesson on the website or in your parent guide and try the suggested At-Home Idea to explore the element of art from that week. Additionally, any materials provided for that class may be sent home if applicable.

Thank you for your understanding and support as we create a fun and inspiring art experience for all students!
